Parent Action for Healthy Kids invites you to a special Talk Early & Talk Often event

LGBTQ+

Sexual Orientation, Gender Identity, and Gender Expression!

What does it all mean?

WEBINAR DETAILS

Parents and Supportive adults, we invite you to join us in this gathering space for an open and honest dialogue about sexual orientation, gender identity and gender expression. As parents, we want to do everything in our power to make sure our children grow up happy, healthy and safe. We do our best, and for our LGBTQ+ kids we have to learn a little more to ensure their happiness, health and safety. This webinar will give you straight forward answers along with resources, and special guest, Daniel, will share his experiences as a Trans Youth.

The featured speaker for this webinar will be Kim Phillips-Knope, Project Lead, Michigan Department of Education, LGBTQ+ Students Project. This webinar will be moderated by Barb Flis, Founder of Parent Action for Healthy Kids and creator of Talk Early & Talk Often.
